

SHOWDOWN

(Heavy Metal/Hard Rock from Bielefeld, Germany)

Tumbleweed comes rolling through empty streets under a burning desert sun as all falls silent... It's the calm before the storm – SHOWDOWN draws near!

It doesn't remain calm from here onwards, as Showdown are here to bring to their audience the full force of 80s Heavy Metal. With their music, their appearance and their live shows, they set every stage ablaze and make every crowd go wild. Steel is gleamin', bodies are steamin', and everybody is just having the time of their life when Showdown comes to town.

The aspiring newcomer group consists of a classic Heavy Metal line-up – and a little more: We've got lead singer Nikki Z on the mic, guitarist Glen Vega and guitarist-keyboarder-hybrid and multitasking expert Alek Saint, Keith Louis hitting the low notes on the bass and drummer Johnny Machine keeping everything together behind the kit. With their debut album that was released in December 2020 as well as a bunch of other songs, Showdown have a lot of ammunition to fire at their audience during their stunning live shows. Blistering riffs, a thundering rhythm section, gleaming solos, gripping melodies and powerful vocals are what defines Showdown's sound, with the addition of synthesizers that reach straight for the heart. Energy, groove, catchiness – sometimes also aggression can be found in Showdown's style of classic Heavy Metal and Hard Rock. Want some Metal as if directly from the 80s? Look no further than Showdown!

So throw yourself into the crowd, lose your mind and join the chorus as Showdown unleash the power of their music upon the stage – they are here to ROCK THE NIGHT!
